

1. Introduction

This Intellectual Property Policy ("Policy") is established by DivVerse Labs and its affiliates, to assert the Company's commitment to protecting its innovative technology, software products, services, and the intellectual efforts of its employees. This Policy outlines the management, protection, and utilization of intellectual property (IP) created, developed, or acquired by the Company.

2. Objective

The objective of this Policy is to:

- Recognize and protect the intellectual property assets of the Company.
- Ensure that IP assets are used in accordance with Company objectives and legal requirements.
- Promote awareness and respect for IP rights within the Company and in dealings with third parties including the company's customers.
- Establish guidelines for the commercialization and licensing of IP.

3. Scope

This Policy applies to all employees, contractors, consultants, and any other individuals or entities that create, develop, or contribute to the intellectual property owned or used by the Company.

4. Definitions

- "Intellectual Property (IP)" refers to creations of the mind, such as inventions; literary and artistic works; designs; symbols, names, code, ideas and images used in commerce; and software.
- "Software" includes but is not limited to, developed software, source codes, algorithms, user interfaces, and documentation.

5. Intellectual Property Rights

- All IP created, developed, or acquired by employees or contractors in the course of their duties or engagement with the Company is the property of DivVerse Labs, except as otherwise agreed upon in writing.
- Employees and contractors are required to disclose promptly any inventions, software, or other IP to the Company's designated IP officer.

6. Protection of Intellectual Property

- The Company shall take appropriate legal measures to protect its IP rights, including but not limited to filing for patents, trademarks, copyrights, and other protective measures as deemed necessary.
- Confidentiality agreements must be signed by all employees, contractors, and third parties to protect the proprietary information and intellectual assets of the Company.

7. Licensing and Commercialization

- The Company may, at its discretion, license its IP to third parties. Such licensing agreements must be in accordance with this Policy and must be approved by the designated authority within the Company.
- Revenue generated from the licensing of IP shall be used in accordance with Company policies and objectives.

8. Compliance and Enforcement

- All Company personnel are required to comply with this Policy and all applicable intellectual property laws.
- Violations of this Policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or contracts, and legal action.

9. Amendments

This Policy may be amended from time to time by the Company to reflect changes in law, industry practices, or Company strategy. All amendments will be communicated to relevant parties in a timely manner.

11. Acknowledgment

All Company employees and contractors are required to acknowledge receipt and understanding of this Intellectual Property Policy.

Signer

Name: Chukwuemeka Stanley

Signature: {{employee_signature}}

Date: 2025-02-16